

Letter of Registration and Return February 2006

Greeting's to the Adrian Empire and the College of Arms!

What a turn out this month, with submissions from all around the Empire. With the timely reports sent last month, I was able to track most of these and most Arms were processed with in two months. I'll I can say to those who still aren't processing Arms within the timeline, (Locally and regionally) your just making the process more difficult for everyone.

Policy Change: From this time forward the Imperial Sovereign of Arms shall only require "one colored copy" of the device submission form from those requesting registration. We have no further need at this time for Black and White drawings. I would still suggest that a extra copy's be made for local records

I dedicate this Policy to the Empress's Save the Earth Foundation.

Good News:

We will hopefully be releasing the Online Armorial very soon. I have already inputted 225 devices. I have received Giff and Jpeg Art of the registered devices for Terre Neuve, Alhambra, Adria, and Cambridge. I do have Art for many of our smaller subdivisions. Yet After considering that 2 years ago it took me over a month to make only three hundred Devices, I will ask any and all Subdivision to send me electronic art of your registered devices if you are able. I will keep working with many things I do have, but considering we now have around 900 arms registered it may take a while to get all the device's up on the Armorial.

Not so Good News:

I beg, plead and implore every Minister of Arms to please cut out the following and tape it to your desk, your heraldry manual, your TV anything that you might see when checking your local device's":

“Any design where in the field is divided Per Pale, Per Fess, Per Bend, Per Bend Sinister, Quarterly, Per Saltire, Per Pall, and Per Pall Inverted wherein the charges on either side of the line of division are of different types.”

Is “Marshalling”

Really Good News!

Many times those who take on the position of Minister of Arms for a subdivision find that they have bitten off a little more than they intended. They are asked to learn a concept of art and science and protocol, plus a new language. From day one they are expected to know information that can take years to learn. They are required to be an administrator and are often the brunt of anger and frustration. Many end up hiding from the position until they can find a way to get out of it. Then there are those few that end up being hooked. They sink their teeth and heart into it. They consistently fulfill their duties, and continually question in the search of understanding to this puzzle of Heraldry. They do their best to serve their subdivisions and populace. It is my need to try and always recognize these individuals and the subdivision to which they serve.

Pursuivant, Herald, King of Arms, these are ranks within the College of Arms that recognize the Minister of Arms positions with in Adria. Shire's always begin with the Minister of Arms being of the rank of Pursuivant. It is by fulfilling their duties and serving the College of Arms that the Minister of Arms office's are recognized and at times raised in Rank.

At this time the Minister of Arms office for the Shire of Gloucester has proven it self to be superiorly efficient in the required duties to its subdivision and the College of Arms. Its Minister of Arms, Pursuivant Dorn das Schwarz Brauge has effectively managed this office to the effect that the Minister of Arms office for the Shire of Gloucester has earned the rank of “Herald” in the College of Arms. All current and future Ministers of Arms for Gloucester shall be considered an official “Herald”.

Congratulations Shire of Gloucester
Congratulations Herald Dorn das Schwarz Brauge

Sir L’Bet’e deAcmd
Fleur-de-Lis King of Arms

Unable to visual identify primary charge. Charge looks to be a form of black cross. SOA suggests tree blasted. It is often found that sable charges are difficult to represent due to the lack of definition.. This is something to truly consider when using a black charge. Suggestion would be to use the color of the field to show definition lines. With the program "Paint" take a black a B&W clip Art of a tree blasted, Go to image on the control line and click "invert color" the drawing should turn black with white detail lines. Take the paint nocket with the color of your field and click outside of the charge. The area around the charge and the detail lines should change to the color of your choice.
