

Office of Rolls

Greetings,

We have released at least 1700 events in all.

These were from the pending files, about 176 from Umbria, about 827 from TN, about 54 from Albion, about 50 from Sangreal, about 50 from Andora, about 25 from Alhambra, about 25 from Somerset, some from York, Penbroke, Kincora, Castille, Chesapeake, Bisqaia, Cambridge, Cashel, Esperance,

Then we have released everything that's been sent in to us. We are totally up to date with the new events.

We have approved 8 audits, but have had to deny 8 audits for lack of points needed.

We have done 4 conversions with one being done now.

The only things not done are problem files from the pending list and the new events that we do not have paperwork for yet.

Imperial Minister of Information

Since the March meeting I have continued removing multiple copies of files off the website.

We have 2 more inquiries about utilizing our host site for local chapter websites.

Other than a few spam messages the Yahoo Groups have been quiet.

There are still many Yahoo Groups which do not have the Adria moderator as a moderator or owner. There are also about 20 dead groups which cannot be removed because of this, including some which are being used to post spam and porn links.

I am still working with Sir Terrin and Sir Wilhelmus on getting the roles/steward database moved to our host site. Published new and updated Arts and Roles forms and Guidelines to the imperial website.

Ministry of Arts and Science

Unto their Imperial Majesties and the Imperial Estates of Adria does Sir Angus Kilshannig, Imperial Minister of Arts and Sciences give the Report the July Meeting.

To Begin, I am Pleased to announce that almost all chapters save for Vingulf and Brandenburg (No Arts Minister) in the Southwest, all Chapters in the Northwest, and all Chapters in the Northeast save for Cambridge are up to date in reporting. In the Southeast I have only received regular reports from Constantinople.

For Banner War 2009. In the Northwest there were two Masterworks Awarded.

One was to Sir Elric for his Period Pavilion, and the second was awarded to Dame Gwendolyn for her embroidered, fur lined cloak with embellishments. Dame Seraphine was awarded a Tournament Win for her Little Morsels.

In the Southwest there were a total of five Masterworks announced, though after consulting with Imperial Rolls Minister only three were actually Awarded

One was to Mary Donna Del Moore for her Venetian Ensemble. The Second was awarded to Sir Michael Sinestro for his Original Ballad, and the third was awarded to Squire Dagian Kokesch for her Strawberry Tart. Tournament Wins were awarded to Dame Maedb Hawkins for her Pater Noster Beads, and Dame Margarita Dubois, for her Butterfly Hennin. There was an appeal of a score that was ruled valid upon review. As the score sheets were handed out at the end of the war do to the lateness of finishing the Arts, the re-judge will be done in the appellant's home chapter at the next event, and the score sheets and results will be sent to this office to forward to the Imperial Crowns and Rolls office to update Banner War Rolls if Necessary. I did not receive reports from Banner War Northeast or Southeast.

The New Form and Judging Guidelines have been out for two months now and we have seen feedback both positive and negative, We have also heard both positive and negative feedback to the online judging collegiums being offered. These are a good idea and should be pursued cautiously in the future. The main problems that I have heard is the time difference from coast to coast can make scheduling a bit difficult for all, however with both planning and multiple collegiums across a broad range of times, this problem can be easily handled. We shouldn't let online Collegia completely take the place of in person ones either. There is something valuable gained in a face to face class that cannot always be communicated through the ether.

I have also sent the Arts and Sciences Manual update to their Imperial Majesties for final review to be placed upon this agenda for your review. In it you will find the non-judged arts rules that the Estates approved in 2007.

If there is any questions, feel free to ask me in person, or by email at adria_knight@yahoo.com

Steward Reports

Most of the reports have been sent in, I am currently missing Steward reports from the following chapters:

Cashel
Isle de Mort
Pembroke
Somerset
Vingulf

I am still missing a few more reports that should not affect the reports given. They have their own bank accounts and are not linked to the corp.

Esperance and Terre Neuve

I am hoping to receive the last of these by the Estates meeting so the following week I can begin to transfer information to the accountant for Tax preparations. The Financial report is included as a PDF.

Kind Regards,

Sharon

(B) The Imperial Ordinary, which is Maintained by the College of Arm's Codex Imperial Herald, is being recreated. The last time the Imperial Ordinary was updated was December 2007. That database is being remade, but with just one person remaking the database, it is going slow.
