

The Adrian Empire

Defendant	Sir Knighthawk (Emperor of Adria)
Charges brought by	Unknown
Original charges filed	Unknown
Trial held	Prior to July 1996
Sentence published	Adrian Herald, July 1996 edition
CHARGES:
Misconduct of office	Guilty
Complicity after the fact	Guilty
Conduct unbecoming a knight	Guilty
Recommended sentence	Removed from the office of Emperor.
	Judicial ban for one year, one day
	Relieved of knightly rank for one year, one day
	Arms struck for one year, one day
Imperial Crown review	April 18, 1996 by Sir Mathghamhain Kilshannig, Lord Protector
Final sentence	As recommended
Notes	Arms were not struck, they were rebated (they were returned after the sentence).

AS PUBLISHED IN THE ADRIAN HERALD, JULY 1996

Knighthawk

You were tried by a duly-convened court, according to the rules of the game we play.

You were found guilty in by this court on three charges.

The Assembled Imperial Estates removed you from office. You no longer have the right to call yourself “Emperor.”

Then they gave you to me for sentencing.

You are found guilty of “Misconduct of Office.”

You are found guilty of “Complicity after the Fact.”

You are found guilty of “Conduct Unbecoming a Knight.”

We, the Lord Protector of the Adrian Empire, Mathghamhain Kilshannig, do state that as of this day, April 18th, in the yar one thousand nine hundred and ninety six:

1. Judicial ban is imposed for one (1) year and one (1) day.
2. The title “Sir” is removed. You forfeit all Knight regalia and all rights granted to a Knight for one (1) year and one (1) day.
3. You will have your arms struck fonn one (1) year and one (1) day.
4. This declaration shall be made public knowledge throughout the Adrian Empire.

So Say We,

Mathghamhain Kilshannig

Lord Protector of the Adrian Empire