July 2008

Greeting's unto the College of Arms and the Adrian Empire,

We hope all is well. First and foremost it is our honor to present the following to the Empire:

The College of Arms of The Adrian Empire

Unto all and singular as well Noble and Gentle and to all others to whom these presents shall come,

I Fleur-de-lis King of Arms of the Empire of Adria send greeting unto the Great and Glorious Adrian Empire.

A CALL has been heard from the Lands of Albion, Brandenburg, Esperance, Iale de Morte and Umbria. Regarding the service of

Dame Diana McDonald Kilshannig Lockerby
late of Umbria, to The Adrian Empire;

WHEREAS anciently from the beginning the valiant and virtuous acts of worthy persons have been commended to the world with sundry monuments and remembrances of their good deeds, amongst which the chief and most usual has been the bearing of signs upon the shield shaped devices called "Arms" which are curdent demonstrations of Knightly virtues. Even so hath the same been and yet is continually observed to the end that such as have done commendable service to their Country or Empire either in war or peace may both receive due honor in their lives and derive the same successively unto their posterity and for ever.

WHEREUPON the passing of such an individual leaves an indelible mark upon the Empire and a void in the place where our loved one has been, We the duly delegated representative of the College of Arms have made search and do find, the service to the Empire of Adria and to its subjects by Dame Diana McDonald Kilshannig Lockerby was exemplary.

THE NINE WORTHIES of history do shine as examples of honor, chivalry, courage, dedication, virtue and valor. The arms of the worthies are forever held above all others as such examples and may be born by hopefuls upon the field of honor until such time as the rights of the armiger are bestowed upon them.

FURTHERMORE with the Order of the Worthies of Adria being the only order created and recognized solely by the Adrian College of Arms, We do hereby and herewith declare Dame Diana McDonald Kilshannig Lockerby a Premier Member of the Adrian Worthies.

TO HONOR Dame Diana in perpetuity and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Adrian Empire College of Arms, we hold the arms of Dame Diana McDonald Kilshannig Lockerby being:

Gules, a squirrel rampant proper, a base Or semy of acorns proper to be forever elevated and protected as “Worthy”, to be born by hopefuls upon the field of honor, should they have no registered arms of their own.

By Our hand this sixth day of August, 2008 anno domini,
Sir L’Bet’e deAcmd,
Fleur-de-lis King of Arms
Imperial Sovereign of Arms

New Tools!

Online Armorial

“Well, we are working on it.” : )

Through a good suggestion of Griffin Queen of Arms Dame Claire and the resolute dedication of our newer Herald-- with style, Lord Sebastian Javier de la Cruz, we have some 767 arms already within a new hosting site that is linked directly to our Adrian Site. As with all thing it takes time and we will need to edit and update the information once finished. It is our goal to have all this hosted on the main Adrian site, yet after 6 years I am still waiting for someone to offer a “No Clause or Strings” database. I am truly pleased with Lord Sebastian's art work as I hope you all are too. It is currently linked under “Departments—Roll of Arms”. Please do not freak out if your arms are not just right in the display, just sent a very polite email with the correction and we will take care of it.

NEW HERALDRY MANUAL: RULES FOR REGISTRATON, ADMINISTRATION AND DESIGN

After many years of contemplation I wish to present a new Manual of Heraldry. In essence this manual is a compilation of all heraldic rules and education strewn out over years. Replacing the Heraldry Manual: Rules for Registration and Administration, the Policies and Precedents Guide, How to Blazon Guide and all other rules and policies found through out our great history. New, are samples which may help guide presenters and Heralds through out the Empire. It is also restructured so as to allow greater reference to specific topics. The Rules are essentially the same yet have been modified to reflect current practices especially in the area of registration. It is my hope that there is better clarification over important aspects of design that I have noticed confusion with in the past years. This took a while to accomplish and of course is not perfect. So I make a charge to all heralds current and future to expand on what is started here. Being Foremost the educational aspect, we have plenty of rules so it is time to start educating. I have found that for most “Adrian Heraldry” is better absorbed by examples, than by the written word alone.

Also, this Manual has nothing to do with Sumptuary or Armigerious rights. I caution the future members of the College to focus on what we were created for: Education of Heraldic Design and Registration of the Arms of the Empire. Stay the course!

Lastly, I announce now that no matter the outcome of the coming war, I shall step down as the Imperial Sovereign of Arms in November. I shall give and take recommendations of a suitable replacement. To all the deputies who have served under me, I thank you, there have only been a handful of Heralds in the Empire who have “walked the talk” so to speak. I have had the fortune to work with the best. To the future Heralds of the Empire, this job is work! There is little glory in being Fleur de Lys King of Arms. For myself at the end of this service all I truly know is that “I tried my best to serve and help.” History will decide if it was enough.

I know present the LoRR for July 2008.

Imperial Sovereign of Arms
Fleur de Lis King of Arms
Beast King of Arms
Your Servant,
Sir L’Bet’e deAcmd
