HERALDIC WILLS

In the recent months several of our fellow Adrians have left our group due to death. While this is a great loss for all of us there seems to be an issue that needs to be addressed.

When our friends leave us, some have heraldry that is left behind, what is done with them is up to the family of the member.

According to the Adrian Heraldry manual there is something that the individual could do before anything happened to them. It is called a Heraldic Will.

Below are the excerpts from the Adrian Heraldry manual 2016 showing what can be done in the event something was to happen to members.

Heraldic Wills

At times members leave the Empire permanently for various reasons. Prior to such instances a Registrant may “Will” their arms to an individual, entity or Chapter. Such “Wills” must be recorded with the College of Arms. See Appendix B. for examples.

D. HERALDIC WILLS

1. SAMPLE 1

I, John Smith, mundanely known as John Doe, do hereby will all of my registered armory to Jane Smith, mundanely known as Jane Doe, to hold in perpetuity.

(sign, date)

2. SAMPLE 2

I, John Smith, mundanely known as John Doe, do hereby will my registered armory, "Azure, two lions or" to Jane Smith, mundanely known as Jane Doe, to hold in perpetuity.

I do hereby will all of my remaining armory to the Duchy of Utopia, to hold in perpetuity

3. SAMPLE 3 (IN THE ABSENCE OF A HERALDIC WILL)

(in the absence of a heraldic will) I, Jane Smith, mundanely known as Jane Doe, do hereby state my claim to the arms left by John Smith, mundanely known as John Doe, on the occasion of his passing on (date).

May this help our populace to make not only the College of Arms work easier, but those who are left behind with one less thing to worry about.
