Returned & Disallowed

Terre Neuve	March of Ides Estate-Device	Vert, a gauntlet fesswise Or sustaining a dagger bendwise Argent

Recommendations:

1) If keeping arms, please change the March's name

2) If keeping the March's name please submit new arms that doesn't reference the death of Julius Caesar

Comments:

- There is clear intent that the March was created to mimic or represent a historical event.
- It represents a historical event: The Death of Julius Caesar
- Arms is passable as long as it's not associated with name's, dates, phrases-reffering to, the Roman's involved of the historical event
- Doesn't Comply to (Section 1: Registration, III. OFFENSIVE AND PRESUMPTUOUS ARMORY) in The Adrian Empire, Inc. Heraldry Manual 2016
