

Letter of Registration and Return

February 2002

This is the raw data for the LoRR. I have included no commentary, neither have I given reasons for any returns. The monumental task of getting my office in order with all of the distractions of mundane life with which I shall not bore you has forced me to leave the details for later so that the gross effort may be put out.

Please note that while this list has been checked and double-checked, there may be errors. I would hope that people who notice errors would bring them to my attention as soon as possible.
