We wish to thank the presenter for resubmitting so we could have a clearer understanding of the Arms presented. We felt that these Arms looked fantastic, but we were Uncertain as to whether these Arms truly portrayed a Proper heraldic practice. The Arms were submitted to The senior staff of the College of Arm's for review. It was Decided by a majority that these arms could not be considered A charge on charge due to the complexity of presenting such a Display. Also that the rule's of fimbriation would be violated if We took this approach. So at this time, unless further evidence can be presented to the College of Arms to support registration we must deny its registration due to improper heraldic practice.

Umbria

Barony of Fallen Keep Estate K-Umbria (March/2005)

Vert, upon a pile inverted azure a tower argent and in chief two plates argent.

Violation of HMRR I. This was presented as Per chevron field division. The point of the per chevron should not reach To the top of the shield. What is truly presented here is a Pile inverted(though some would contend that it is a bit wide at the Base). As a Pile, it would therefore violate the rule of tincture – Azure charge on a vert field. Please re draw if it is wished to be Per chevron field division.

House Obsidian Device K- Umb (March/2005)

Pily sable and azure, a battle axe argent.

Violation of HMRR I.B.2.- Field divisions of more than four (4) parts (gyronny, checky, bendy, paly, etc.) must be comprised of one (1) color and one (1) metal. This also include's Pilly.

House Sun Dragon Device K- Umb (March/2005)

Azure , A sun or surmounted by a dragon rampant sable.

Violation of Policies and Prescedents – Charges 6.

. Suns may no longer be charged with anything besides roundels (the so-called “sun eclipsed”).

This was Blazoned as a mullet when submitted, yet the charge is Clearly a sun. Also mullets of greater than 8 points would be Checked against suns. P.P. Mullets 1.

Lord Nikoli Gustavson Device K- Umb (March/2005)

Checky gules and sable.

Violation of HMRR I.B.2.- Field divisions of more than four (4) parts (gyronny, checky, bendy, paly, etc.) must be comprised of one (1) color and one (1) metal. This device was originally grandfathered in to the College and then released in Feb 2005. It is no longer a register able item.

Sir Richard Reven Device K- Umb (March/2005)

Azure, a battle axe argent shafted brown in saltire two Swords argent.

Violation of HMRR I. Please redraw.

It is necessary to point out that when something is tinctured "proper", the Rule of Tincture STILL APPLIES. A "tree proper" is tinctured with a brown trunk and Vert leaves. A "beaver proper" is brown. Historically, brown charges "proper" are never found on Colour fields, only on metal, which leads to the conclusion that brown is classed as a Colour. If something is brown by default, then it is a Colour. (This is different from conflict - when dealing with Brown, the Adrian College counts it as 1 CD from all tinctures except Sable, from which it is indistinct.)

Lady Anna Maria de La Rouge Device K- Umb (March/2005)
*Purpure, a pile argent, in chief a martlet sable in fess
Two quills counterchanged.
Returned for a redraw and violation of HMRR XX D.
I included the blazon presented due to the concern of Trying to understand the submitters intent. The martlet
Does not reside in chief but more in line to the fess point.
The quills are not conterchanged that would imply that
One is on the pile and the other on the field, which would Make one purpure and one argent. Both quills are on the Field and are presented argent. The new device
Registration form has tick marks to give relation to the Chief area of the field, the fess area and the base area.
Please redraw using the proper tools and the true desired
Positions of the charges.*
