June 1998

Katherine II, Basilea unto

The People of Adria:
Greetings!

This month has seen Us travel to the fine Duchies of York and Aragon. Our visit to York was most enjoyable—We participated in one of the finest feasts We have ever had the pleasure to attend, and We had a most pleasant time visiting the populace in mundane as well as medieval settings. Congratulations to Dame Bregine Cunningham (pardon my spelling, my lady) on her knighthood and her induction into the Imperial Order of the Golden Spoon, and to His Royal Grace Il-Khan Temjur Jhitan on his new title of Lord Baronet of the Adrian Empire. A word of encouragement to those in York: Your combatants and artisans rival those in any region in the Empire, and you have much for which to be proud. Keep up the good work! Our thanks to His Royal Grace for his hospitality. Good friends, please note that HRG and We were turned away at the gates of the Magic Kingdom, but we did conquer China! (ask us about it—it's a fun story!)

Please join Us in congratulating Their Royal Graces Sir Angus McAllister and Dame Diana Lockerby, the new Duke Elector and Duchess Elector of Umbria.

Imagine, if you will, a war at which there is no bickering, no politics, and a whole lot of fun! Impossible? No—that was the Chocolate War! We offer a huge thank you to the people of Aragon for giving us a small albeit great event, and We give Our congratulations to Their Graces Sir Winfred and Dame Anginette, the new Lord and Lady Protector of Aragon. It is a pleasure to see them return to Adria after so many years. We also offer congratulations to Sir Iain MacIntosh and Baroness Serina for their new titles of Lord and Lady of the Empire, and to Her Grace Dame Anginette, Lady Alara, and Joanne, the even-newer members of the Golden Spoon!

Sir Dilvish has prepared the agenda for the Imperial Senate meeting, and distribution should take place presently. Watch those mailboxes, Senators!

As We reach the midpoint of Our reign, we are heartened to hear that the Adrian Empire has officially broken the 600-member mark! Vivat! Each of you is to be congratulated for the part you have played in the expansion of the Empire. Here's to the next 600!

Grace, mercy and peace be unto you.

Imperial Minister of Rolls Deputy: Dispensation of Points

Greetings one and all from His Lordship Sir Roy William MacCoda von Seiken Imperial Minister of Rolls deputy of the Adrian Empire

I am rapidly approaching my self-imposed deadline of iSomewhere in June or Julyi for publishing a iDoomsdayi book for the Empire.

I will have the software completed within the next couple of weeks. I will then forward said software to Brynna nan Tolman, the Imperial Minister of Rolls who will input what information she has regarding points, rank, titles and awards for the populace of the Adrian Empire. She will then press the button and generate the doomsday book for printing and distribution. It is up to each of us to provide her with accurate information regarding our points. If your house sire has not been sending in their Sireis reports, or your autocrat has not been turning in the event reports, it is up to you to see that they do.

There has been some confusion regarding the dispensation of points.

This issue was brought to my attention at the Adria/ECS Friendship War.

I hope this clears things up for you.

The following excerpts are taken from the current By-laws of the Adrian Empire.

I copied the portions I wanted into a word document where the aggressive nature of the grammar and spell checkers went berserk. ( The highlights and underlines are mine.

ARTICLE V: MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERSHIP

A. NOTICE

Official meetings of the Adrian Empire are jousts, tournaments, fairs, revels, or other events, the date, time and place of which have been announced to the membership thirty (30) days prior to the event in the official newsletter or in a Crown's or Ruling Noble's court at an official event.

B. DEFINITION

An official event is any meeting of the membership, which is held in a medieval context, setting and style for the purpose of education, recreation and/or competition, as long as the event is sanctioned by the Crown. (Crown sanction may be revoked in writing for a just and stated cause.) Sponsored by a subdivision, announced thirty (30) days in advance to the membership through official channels, presided over by the Crown or a Ruling Noble, and attended by the ministry officials or their designated deputies responsible for the type of activity(ies) undertaken.

C. UNOFFICIAL EVENTS

Any event which does not conform to the specifications above, shall be considered

An unofficial event and any results of that event which require official status, shall not be recognized.

D. SPONSORSHIP REQUIREMENTS

All Ruling Nobles of the Estates Minor shall be required to sponsor one (1) Event per calendar year.

All Ruling Nobles of the Great Estates shall be required to sponsor two (2) events per calendar year.

All Ruling Royal Peers shall be required to sponsor one (1) Crown event per month, of which during the course of a year, two (2) must be war events.

The Ruling Imperial Peer shall be required to sponsor the Imperial Crown war and any war events which take place between two or more chartered subdivisions.

The Ruling Imperial Peer may not sponsor more than three (3) Imperial Crown events exclusive of the Imperial Crown War.

Not more than two (2) crown events may be war events, with the exception of a Crown or Civil war event.

A member shall not be allowed to participate in more than one (1) Crown event per month for purposes of meeting their requirements for advancement.

There are two exceptions to this:

Imperial Crown events
Crown/Civil Wars.

At all Crown events members shall be afforded the opportunity to earn their requirements for advancement in their area of endeavor.†

The By-laws are clear in their meaning if not in the wording.

You may earn ONE (1) Crown tournament point per month.

You may earn ONE (1) Imperial tournament point in addition to the Crown tournament point in a month where you participate in both types of events.

You may attend as many wars as you choose and will earn ONE (1) war point for each war in which you participate. (That means ONE (1) combat war point if you fight, ONE (1) Arts/Sciences war point if you enter the competition and ONE (1) Ministry war point if you perform some ministerial function during the war.)

There is no event restriction regarding the awarding of a Master-Work. (That means that if you enter six items in the competition at a war, you may earn six Master-Works as well, even though you only get one war point.)

You may attend as many Demos as you choose and will earn all applicable points for your participation.

You may earn as many Demo Initiation points as you choose.

Here are the requirements for Knighthood as listed in the by-laws.

I have forms with these requirements available for anyone who wants them.

Regarding ministry points; the By-laws state that a member must hold an office to earn points. An acceptable alternative is earning a ministry point at an event. I.E. Water bearing, Scribing, Marshalling etc.

Performing a ministerial function of this nature considered "Holding an office" by the Ad though it be of a temporary nature.

Quoting the By-laws

3. Minister Roll.
  - a. Clarke.
  - b. Rector
    - i. Hold an office
    - ii. Participate in 1 additional demonstration.

- c. Chamberlain.
  - i. Hold an office for an additional 5 months.
  - ii. Participation in 1 additional demonstrations.
  - iii. Initiate and organize 1 demonstration.
- d. Knight Minister.
  - i. Hold an office for an additional 10 months.
  - ii. Participation in 1 war at a Crown event.
  - iii. Initiate and organize 3 additional demonstrations.
- e. Knight Civil.
  - i. Hold an office for an additional 18 months.
  - ii. Participation in 5 additional wars at Crown events.
  - iii. Initiate and organize 5 additional demonstrations.
- f. Knight Premier.
  - i. Hold an office for an additional 36 months.
  - ii. Participation in 10 additional wars at Crown events.
  - iii. Initiate and organize 15 additional demonstrations"

Regarding Arts/Sciences points; as described in the By-Laws of the Adrian Empire and above, a member may earn ONE Crown Tournament point per month. The only exception being the Imperial Tournament point.

It has been the case in the past where members have been awarded multiple points at wars.

This practice is in violation of the intention of the By-laws and will not be allowed to continue.

If multiple tournament points were allowed at wars a member might "Earn" an Arts/Sciences Knighthood in as little as five months.

Example:

Bob the artist joins Adria and attends his first crown event.

He enters a “Medieval Widget” in the Master’s list and wins the tournament achieving a MasterWork in the process. Coincidentally, there is a war and a demo on the next weekend. Bob attends the war, enters four arts entries and gets a tourney point for each one. The next day, Bob attends the demo and eagerly shows the mundanes how widgets are made. At the next monthly event, Bob again enters the Arts/Sciences tournament this time on the knights list. Bob wins the tournament and collects his point.

As fate would have it, there is a war on the very next weekend in a neighboring Kingdom and Bob makes the road trip to participate. Once again Bob enters four items and is awarded four tourney points for his efforts. Bob goes to three demos that week and shows everyone how to make a widget, earning demo points for each. At the next monthly event, Bob enters the Arts/Sciences tournament.

A few days later, Bob goes to a demo and while showing how to make his widget, finds out about the beer war coming up later that month. Bob attends the beer war and once again enters four items in support of his chosen side in the Arts/Sciences competition. At the next monthly event, Bob enters a different widget on the Knight’s list and hears about a little war in the neighboring Duchy. Bob goes to the war and as usual enters all four categories in the Arts/Sciences competition.

Guess what? At the next monthly event Bob becomes Sir Bob because he has 19 iTournamenti points, 5 demo points, 3 war points, a Master’s list win, a Knight’s list win and a Masterwork.

He has, in effect, met the requirements of an Arts/Sciences Knighthood in four months of membership and all this not counting the point and possible win or Masterwork that he may receive at this, his fifth event.

Now granted, this is an extreme example. It is however, possible when the By-laws are interpreted in such a manner.

It is the position of the Imperial Office of Rolls that 18 months be the normal amount of time required to attain Knighthood in all three orders in accordance with the by-laws. Once again, the exception being Imperial tournament points. Imperial tournament points would allow a member to achieve Knighthood in a minimum of 15 months since they are in addition to regular monthly Crown tournament points. It should be noted here that most Imperial events are not tournaments and therefore do not carry points other than those of a ministerial nature.

This is the source of confusion regarding Arts/Sciences war points:

Quoting the “By-Laws” here, emphasis mine:

“A member shall not be allowed to participate in more than one (1) Crown event per month for purposes of meeting their requirements for advancement.

There are two exceptions to this:

Imperial Crown events
Crown/Civil Wars.

At all Crown events members shall be afforded the opportunity to earn their requirements for advancement in their area of endeavor.”

Now, what this passage of the by-laws means is that you may participate in as many Wars and/or Imperial events as you choose, and nothing more.

A member will receive exactly ONE (1) war point per war attended and in which participation is rendered by said member, regardless of the number of items entered by member in the war competition.

WAR POINTS ARE NOT CROWN OR IMPERIAL TOURNAMENT POINTS.

If you win the “Tournament” at a war, what you are “Winning” is the competition category war point for your side.

A member does NOT receive a Crown tournament win point at a war.

A member does NOT receive a Crown tournament participation point at a war.

(You get a war point.)

Of course, a Masterwork is still a Masterwork, wherever you earn it.

I hope I have cleared up any confusion regarding the awarding of points for the Arts/Sciences.

These are the requirements for Knighthood in the Arts/Sciences quoted as written in the current “By-laws”i of the Adrian Empire.

- “2. Robe Roll.
  - a. Apprentice.
  - b. Journeyman.
    - i. Participation in 3 Masters’ Tourneys at Crown events.
  - c. Master.
    - i. Participation in 5 additional Masters’ Tourneys at Crown events.
    - ii. 1 win in a Masters’ Tourney at a Crown event.
    - iii. Participation in 2 demonstrations.
  - d. Knight Robe.
    - i. Participation in 10 Knights’ Tourneys at Crown events.
    - ii. 1 win in the Knights’ Tourneys at a Crown event.
    - iii. 1 master work.
    - iv. Participation in 3 additional demonstrations.
    - v. Participation in 1 war at a Crown event.

- e. Knight Doctor.
  - i. Participation in 18 additional Knights' Tournaments at Crown events.
  - ii. 5 additional wins in the Knights' Tournaments at Crown events.
  - iii. 2 additional master works.
  - iv. Participation in 5 additional demonstrations.
  - v. Participation in 3 additional wars at Crown events.
- f. Knight Master.
  - i. Participation in 36 additional Knights' Tournaments at Crown events.
  - ii. 10 additional wins in the Knights' Tournaments at Crown events.
  - iii. 4 additional master works.
  - iv. Participation in 15 additional demonstrations.
  - v. Participation in 5 additional wars at Crown events"

Here are the requirements as listed in the By-laws for fighters.

There have been questions regarding the requirements for second and third level Knight Combatants.

Steel participation and wins ARE REQUIRED for second and third level Knight Combatants.

Quoting the "By-laws" again, emphasis is mine:

- "1. Combatant Roll.
  - a. Yeoman.
    - i. Be authorized by a Knight combatant or two Sergeants and the Minister of Joust to enter the Sergeants' List.
  - b. Guardsman.
    - i. Participation in 3 Sergeants' Lists at Crown events.
  - c. Sergeant.
    - i. Participation in 5 additional Sergeants' Lists at Crown events.
    - ii. 1 win in a Sergeants' List at a Crown event.
    - iii. Participation in 2 demonstrations.
    - iv. Be authorized by a Knight combatant and the Minister of Joust to enter the Knights' List.

- d. Knight Bachelor.
  - i. Participation in 10 Knights' Lists at Crown events.
  - ii. 1 win in the Knights' Lists at a Crown event.
  - iii. Participation in 1 war at a Crown event.
  - iv. Participation in 3 additional demonstrations.
- e. Knight Bannerette.
  - i. Participation in 18 additional Knights' Lists, of which 8 must be in the armored Knights' Lists, at Crown events.
  - ii. 5 additional wins in the Knights' Lists, of which 3 must be in the armored Knights' Lists, at Crown events.
  - iii. Participation in 5 additional wars at Crown events.
  - iv. Participation in 5 additional demonstrations.
- f. Knight Champion.
  - i. Participation in 36 additional Knights' Lists, of which 16 must be in the armored Knights' Lists, at Crown events.
  - ii. 10 additional wins in the Knights' Lists, of which 6 must be in the armored Knights' Lists, at Crown events.
  - iii. Participation in 10 additional wars at Crown events.
  - iv. Participation in 15 additional demonstrations."

Now then, it is incumbent upon each member of the Adrian Empire to ensure that his/her points earned are being submitted to the Minister of Rolls via either the Autocratis report in conjunction with the Sire's report (as done here in Esperance), or via the Sireis, Baronis, Count's or Viceroy's reports as used in other subdivisions of the Adrian Empire. Your points are your own responsibility. Make sure that your points get to the Minister of Rolls.

To the members of the Sable Crescent within the Adrian Empire, here is the July meeting message:

The Offices of the Rolls are only archives for your points. It is our responsibility to ensure that points audits are conducted in accordance with the described parameters as set forth in the By-laws.

I would also think that each member of the Adrian Empire is honor bound to provide correct information to the Rolls ministers.

If there are gaps in your points and you are aware of them, would it not be less than honorable to allow those gaps to remain when you could exert some energy to correct the mistake? I believe so.

The burden of reporting points standings is ours.

The burden of providing us the information we report is yours.

Take your points seriously but always remember: "It's just a game!"

Yours in Service
 Sir Coda

York

Greetings Good Populace of Adria,

York was graced this past month with the presence of her Imperial Majesty Dame Katherine Marshal. While here, Her Imperial Majesty attended one of York's grandest knighting feasts, in honor of Dame Bregene Cunningham. The majestic hall was illuminated with the glow of candlelight. Along the wall was hung the heraldry of York's estates. The tables were covered in radiant white cloth with only the most medieval of items adorning their surface.

Outside, the populace kneeled as Sir Olav announced the entrance of her Imperial Majesty, followed by his Royal Grace Il-Khan Temjur Jhitan and Count Lord Sir Killian Oakesblood. Once they took their respective places at the high table, the Barons, Baronesses and Sires were announced. One by one they presented themselves to the Empress before taking their places. Sir Olav then began to announce the rest of the populace. Once everyone reached their seats, the announcement of Bregene Cunningham was answered with thunderous applause from the populace. Sir Olav then proceeded to entertain the populace in pure Olav fashion. Jokes and tales were told, but not before Sir Olav demonstrated to his wife Akako and the populace how to drink from a goblet, with pinky extended, while dabbing one's mouth between sips. Once the laughter of the populace settled, the Knighting party was called forth.

A traditional Pagan ceremony preceded the Knighting of York's newest Knight Robe. The ceremony provided both cultural and historical enrichment. Dame Bregene was knighted by a fellow Knight Robe, her husband Sir Raffé Cunningham.

The feast consisted of only medieval fare. Multiple appetizers, main courses and desserts were served to the populace. The feast was enjoyed by all who attended. A very special thanks to Dame Bregene and all who assisted her for creating this most enchanting feast.

The event the following day was also graced with the lovely presence of our Imperial Majesty Dame Katherine. York was prepared to show Her Imperial Majesty an enjoyable time. Opening Court brought multiple squiring ceremonies. But those came after Squire Iain and Sir Cullen presented Sir Killian with a brick of special meaning (if you would like further explanation on its meaning please contact Squire Iain--Tengu666@aol.com). Captain Sir Tristan Thorne took on two squires, Squire Zachary and Squire Baltazar. Sir Trakx also took two new squires and broke his string of all-Scottish squires with Squire Gryphon and Squire Oriana. Both sets of new squires were welcomed from under a huge squire pile. Sir barter, a magnificent chair. The chair was accompanied by a warranty, which Captain Thorne and his wife voided before the end of the event.

The winners of the lysts in steel and knights renn was Sir Trakx. In sergeants renn Hugo took his first win. The shinai lyst was won by Squire Gryphon. The Knights arts lyst was claimed by Sir Raffé with the chair he built and carved for Captain Thorne.

Her Imperial Majesty held a class for the populace of York on the workings of Adria. The populace would like to thank her Imperial Majesty for the class, but also for gracing us with her presence.

During closing court a small scuffle erupted between Squire Zachary and Sir Olav over the tales with which Sir Olav entertains the populace. In Squire Zachary's opinion, the tales offend his nationality among others (Irish and Scottish). Sir Cullen backed Squire Zachary and talks of a fun war broke out. A war between Sir Olav and Sir Cullen is tentatively to take place in 60 days. The losing army will have to host a feast, doing all the cooking and cleaning, which will take place shortly after the war pending an approval from the estates.

A note from the April event, a new Canton with the help of Sir Kell was formed, Bannokburn, with Squire Zachary as the Viceroy. The Canton represents those who live in the far Northern areas of York.

Again York would like to thank her Imperial Majesty for visiting and we hope she enjoyed her time spent in York. We certainly enjoyed her presence. Also another thanks to Dame Bregene for her gift to the populace, an enchanting and memorable feast.

In Service to the Dream,
Josephine Durand Accolon

Umbria

Greetings unto the Populace!

We owe a great deal to Sir Nikolai for making the long, arduous trip to our fair lands and making the day what it turned out to be. In addition to the wisdom Sir Nikolai brought with him, he provided the clearness for us to regain sight of the vision we hold for the dream. We cannot offer enough gratitude for his effort. It is our sincere hope that Sir Nikolai will return to us soon and at that time will enjoy an Umbria enveloped in respect for all. We thank him, too, for gracing us with several bardics. One of them brought misty eyes to more than one who listened. This bardic told of Umbria, the region where we live, the region we all love. This man serves as Protector of the Dream and we must say that there are none who could do more justice to this most important quest. Again, our undying gratitude to Sir Nikolai Belsky, Prince of Adria, Protector of the Dream.

We wish to offer a hearty huzzah to Sir Iain Duncan MacIntosh for investing the last six months of his life having been the best Duc he could possibly have been. Sir Iain ran a war filled with interesting scenarios which obviously required thought and preparation. There are no retirement titles for the positions of Duc or Duchess and so the memory of the retiring Crowns must only live in our thoughts. This Duc will certainly live in our memories. We look forward to his continued effort within our region.

Sir Duriel Caliban was a most formidable combatant, as were his brave and honorable comrades. He and his army stood proud and tall. We look forward to embracing his ideas and concerns regarding our region and our growth. This Knight has much experience upon which we plan to draw. We sincerely invite him to work with us to create a region admired and emulated by all who hear our name.

As Sir Angus said, we have living in our region the most incredible artisans. These people of the populace invested countless hours on their projects. We are extremely impressed with every single artisan. We are left in awe of your cumulative knowledge. You all have so much to offer any who would wish to know more of your craft. We invite you to share yourselves with any who would wish to know more. To all the artisans, huzzah!

To all combatants we offer this: you are among the most impressive forces we have seen at any war, bar none. You all fought proudly and with bravery. On a day filled with emotion you all did a wonderful job remembering that you represent Umbria. You can be proud of your efforts.

It takes a multitude of people to make any region, proportionately as many for a Duchy as for a Kingdom. We offer a heartfelt thank you to all who made the day and further create the dream we play. This includes not only the combatants and the artisans, but also the Marshals, the Judges, the Ministers, the list mistress, and those who spent the effort to create the feeling of a medieval encampment. We understand that the effort behind the scenes was vast, indeed. We are positive we have not included all who invested something of themselves to create what will certainly be a day we will remember always.

In short, we thank you one and all for the days, weeks and months of effort you have invested. Your accomplishments have not gone without recognition by us.

We vow to serve all equally and fairly. We understand that each and every one of us has something to offer and look forward to dreaming with each and every one of you.

Lady Dame Diana Lockerby
Duchess Elector of Umbria

Umbrian Events:

Every Wednesday night, at Encanto Park (off 15th Avenue, between Thomas and McDowell), fighter practice is held. On most nights, shinai and rapier fighting abound, with occasional forays into steel, if numbers and equipment permit. The Viceroy of the Canton of Thunar, His Excellency Sire Waldham von Torsvan, hosts the Canton Tourney the first Wednesday of every month, at Encanto Park. The Crowns hosts the monthly Tournament on the third Saturday of the month, every month, at Cactus Park, located on the corner of 39th Avenue and Cactus (next to Moon Valley High School). There will be a Traveling Tourney every 3 months, with the next being in August. Locations will be announced. For any information about fighter practice or the Tourney, please contact TRGs or me, Lord Sire Squire James the Red, Ducal Chronicler.

For further details with more of a local taste, please see our web site. Direct your browser to the Duchy of Umbria site at www.primenet.com/~cedrik. If you wish to read the Umbrian Mug, which is our local monthly newsletter, there is a link on the Duchy main page.

For any further information, or to have your questions answered, please consult the updated listing of Umbrian Ministries and Positions.

Merchant's Advertisement:

Medieval Menagerie is an exciting new company formed by HRG Lady Dame Diana Lockerby and Viceroy Sire Waldham von Torsvon. Items for sale range from fine period garb to armor, helms and blades, with all types of various sundries in between. Additionally, custom made items may be ordered. Medieval Menagerie is a one-stop shop for all your Renaissance/Medieval needs. The wares are displayed at Encanto Park (Phoenix AZ) most Wednesday nights, (in conjunction with Fighter practice) and are also displayed on the Web at www.extremezone.com/~medieval. Contact HRG Lady Dame Diana for further information.

Alpha Far West Bookstore, which is run by the Count Lord Sir Roland of the Icelands, is a fine place to purchase incense, Tarot cards, books, and other Medieval and New Age items. The Count also displays his wares in the same locales as Medieval Menagerie, and is definitely a fine place to shop. Contact Lord Sir Roland for further information.
