From the Imperial Crowns

Unto all and singular to who these presents come do the Imperial Crowns of the Adrian Empire send greetings and affection.

As the weeks dwindle into days, we prepare ourselves to enter the new phase of Our Adrian lives: that of the retired Imperial Crown. We take comfort in the knowledge that the Empire is left in capable and enthusiastic hands as we are welcomed into the ranks of those giants who have preceded us into the Imperial Family.

As the gentle footsteps of the Heirs approach the throne, we have worked diligently to ensure smooth transitions. You may have received messages from new Imperial Ministers as the transitions have been completed; these are to be honored as you have honored the ministers who came before as they have begun their duties with our blessing and encouragement. Long-awaited projects are finally at completion and we are thrilled with the efforts of our ministers as they put forth the end results of the last two years.

All those across this beloved Empire who have served as her leaders – from Imperial Crown to House Sire – know the bittersweet moments we are facing. We are proud of the Empire we have helped to lead. We recall not only the triumphs of our successes, but also the moments of angst. We are proud to have led an Empire where the voices have been heard and righteousness triumphed again and again throughout our lands from the smallest shire to the Empire itself.

The word retirement is an odd one, for we have no intentions of retiring from service to Adria. We are thrilled to step into a place where our service can take a different form and we can focus on different ways to make the Empire stronger, happier and even more cohesive.

We must thank so many people for their personal service and support, as well as service to the Empire that we are afraid to start naming individuals in fear that someone will be inadvertently be left off the list. To all those who served as ministers with honor and dignity, we are humbled by your quiet and extraordinary efforts and the hours of work you do behind the scene that often go unrealized as you present your work with humble grace that belies the effort you put forth.

To the Imperial Family, we are awed by your kindnesses and support, we hope that we have lived up to your expectations and honored the work you did before us by continuing your good works and leading in the example you have shown.

From the Sovereign of Arms

Greetings unto the Adrian Empire and the College of Arms, Since December of 2004, the College of Arms has registered some 234 Arms. Regionally 349 Arms have been processed. Locally one can only guess at how many have been created and consulted on.

This is close to three times more arms registered than the past 4 years. I have to say "thank you" to all the Imperial Regional Deputies, Kings of Arms, Queens of Arms, Heralds and Pursuivants, who processed their submissions, filed their reports and fulfilled their duties to the Adrian Empire and the College of Arms. This process works only because of those who have put forth such effort without self interest. With only the desire to advance the Adrian culture, promote the Structure of the College of Arms and educate in the splendor of Heraldry.

I as well as many members of the College realize that there are goals still to be reached. But I truly believe that the structure and foundation of the current College is strong and with so many members of the Empire newly reaching out and contributing, I am sure all goals and needs of the Empire will be met.

Thank you members of the College of Arms, Thank you, Imperial Majesties and Thank You Adria for your support, and this opportunity to have served. With that said.....

I Sir L'Bete'e deAcmd

Imperial Sovereign of Arms

Fleur de Lis King of Arms

Have the pleasure to bring forth:

The September 2005 Letter of Registration and Return & September 2005 Armorial

A copy can be found on the Yahoo heraldry group in the files section, in the College Archive folder.

They both are also available on the Adrian website. Sir L'Bet'e are recommending them. Please remember that these awards are for Imperial service. Anyone may recommend anyone else for an award. Here are the awards you may recommend someone for.

News from Imperial War West

The Empress's daughter attempts to claim the throne at Imperial War West. (Printed with permission)

As noted in the picture, Princess Alexandra, the Heir chosen by the Empire at Banner War 04, reluctantly postponed her claim to the Empire upon being informed by the Imperial Chancellors that she must wait until she reaches the age of majority to pursue her claim. At that time, Sir Pavo laid claim to throne on behalf of himself and his co-ruler, Dame Ashlenn, due to being a direct Umbrian descendant of Her Imperial Majesty, and Sir Madoc and Dame Kendra presented their claim as cousins to Their Imperial Majesties through their mutual grandfather, HIH Sir Erik

As the Empire prepares for the Coronation of the Heirs to the Imperial Throne, all knoweth that Sir Pavo and Dame Ashlenn did triumph on the field of Combat in a well-fought war on both sides. We congratulate not only the Heirs, but also Sir Madoc and Dame Kendra for the honor with which the events of the War unfolded. All combatants, archers, and artisans put forth a great effort for their chosen army. Their Imperial Majesties would like to thank all the ministers, without whom such an undertaking as Imperial War could not happen.
